

Quotes and Awards

"Good Songs! We need humor badly! I've sent them to Sing Out." ~ Pete Seeger

"A witty and insightful songwriter ... Kilburn is a skillful guitarist and has a distinctive, full-bodied voice... there's a kindness in his clear vision that marks the very best and most enduring singer-songwriters ... a diverse and extremely talented performer."
~ The Boston Globe

"I like this song , but I can't remember the name of the guy who wrote it." ~ Arlo Guthrie (about "The Anti- Garden Song")

"Sounded great - nice guitar work!" ~ Tom Rush

"You really picked the hell out of that guitar- when are you going to make an album?"
~ David Mallett (1981)

"You can always count on fresh and insightful lyrics, a distinctly expressive voice and top-notch musicianship from Eric Kilburn. He's done it again with his new CD My Own Mistakes. 'Memory Line' is real gem ..." ~ Catie Curtis

"Witty writing and exemplary musicianship" ~ Vermont Vanguard

"Your new album absolutely rocks! Incredible, mature, wry, reflective, funny-wise gems to a song. You should be really proud of that work - a testament to a lifetime's love of great songwriting. You deserve your Kerrville kudos!" ~ Mark Simos, Grammy-Nominated songwriter

"... a great songwriter, able to combine all the emotions, moving our hearts with your stories, humor, sad tales, and ultimately compassion." ~ Nick Page

1990 Boston Music Award nomination for Outstanding Folk Album

2019 Kerrville Folk Festival New Folk Finalist

2023 Falcon Ridge Folk Festival's New Faces in Folk finalist

February 2023 National Folk Chart's album #2 of the month for Reckonings and song #2 of the month for "The Wheel Meets the Road"